Radio of Lips

The Joy Formidable

There's a cold front coming
Came and left again
It gets people running
Don't want to get caught up in that
When we're together
Do you see it in the smiles too?
I said it's same old trapAnd now I see you took it
Says the radio of lips once moreThe further I run
The faster you apologize
The faster I return
The more I see it in your eyes
Take your wings and say goodnight
I won't fall asleep insideYou had a seat for me
Not anymore
We can all sit and forget
And hold onto nothing
I still wait
Followed you
Follow me
Now it's on repeat
And the only way, only way won't talkI thought you'd stay with me
But it's just the radio of lips once moreThe further I run
The faster you apologize
The faster I return
The more I see it in you eyes
Take your wings and say goodnight
I won't fall asleep insideLike the messenger ahead
Like the neon lights
The red's second-best
And left it all to chance
But the chance wasn't just yours
They followed into the streets
By myself I'm gone but all this trash
Because together a different storyTake your wings and say goodnight
I won't fall asleep insideThe further I run
The faster you apologize
The faster I return
The more I see it in your eyes
Take your wings and say goodnight

I won't fall asleep inside
