Rick Springfield

That girl there, she's mine
And like starlight, she shines
And right in time she threw me a life-line, only to save me
She's my Sunday drive
I'm glad I'm alive
Just with that look, she opened my book and she read every line
And that girl makes me crazy
Yeah she burns like the sun
I'm a Johnny-come-lately (maybe) I better pinch myself
I think I've found the one
She's clear and she's bright . She brings blind men to light.
There's no compromise in her flawless eyes
And I think she makes me...yeah she makes me feel young
She's on the tip of my tongue and our moment will come
She's got me addicted to the beat of her drum
Yeah that girl makes me crazy and she brings me undone
I'm a Johnny-come-lately (maybe) I better pinch myself and she still can amaze me...when she burns like the sun
I'm a Johnny-come-lately (maybe)
I know I've found the one
