Effortlessly

Sister Hazel

I wont be so hard on me today
I start to take myself so seriously
Shouldn't be so hard just to be effortlessly
It shouldn't be so hard to keep it together
It shouldn't be so hard to say the right things to you
It shouldn't be so hard just to be effortlessly
Weightless worries fall away
Wasted pools of energy
I want to know, I want to breathe
Effortlessly, just be
I want to be effortlessly
I want to be
It shouldn't be so hard to be inspired, no
It shouldn't be so hard just to write this song
It shouldn't be so hard to be wrong or to agree
It shouldn't be so hard to change the world, no
It shouldn't be so hard just to change your mind
It shouldn't be so hard just to be effortlessly
Weightless worries fall away
Wasted pools of energy
I want to know, I want to breathe
Effortlessly, just be
I want to be effortlessly
I want to be
I wont be so hard on me today, no
I start to take myself so seriously
Shouldn't be so hard just to be effortlessly
Effortlessly
I want to know, I want to breathe
I want to simplify my needs
I want to live inside this moment
And just be effortlessly, just be
I want to be effortlessly
I want to be
