Mara's Song

Mandy Harvey

Come walk, my friend, with me
To a place that we always dreamed.
You will know how it feels
To be right where you're supposed to be.

And all I see is you holding me, forever.

As the day keeps on going
On my face, all my thoughts are showing.
Can you see it in my eyes?
Calling you to a brand new life.

And all I see is you holding me, forever.
All I see is you holding me, forever.

Day by day, we'll journey on.
Through the storm and through the calm.
Day by day we'll find a way together.

Cause all I see is you holding me forever
All I see is you holding me, forever,
All I see is you holding, forever.

Come walk, my friend, with me
To a place that we always dreamed.
