Everybody's Brother

Cody ChesnuTT

I used to smoke crack back in the day
I used to gamble with money and lose
I used to talk to nice ladies, used to swim through friends
But now I'm teaching kids in Sunday school and I'm not turning backNo turning back
No turning back
No turning back to good ol' times
No turning backNo one could sell a lie quicker than I
But no one could shift the blame better than me
I used to walk out on my family
Leave and tend to sin
Rejected all account of billerie
Lord, I'm not turning back
No turning back
No turning back
No turning back to good ol' times
No turning back
I used to smoke crack back in the day
I used to gamble with money and lose
I used to talk to nice ladies, used to swim through friends
But now I'm teaching kids in Sunday school
(No turning back)
