

United We Stand

Threat Signal

Suffocate our will to survive eliminate the choice and divine us dissolution, self-confusion fall into the absence of mind as you run away, away from all your fear we'll stand right here

as you fall away, away from us this year
we'll stand right here

it's not complicated the life you once lead the demons in your head i felt suffocated like i'd reached the end, but now united we stand now we stand how long will you defend the path you've chosen the life that you've thrown away take this life in our hands, united we stand, this world becomes what we make it
