

I Wish I Never Met You (Stereogamous Remix)

Sam Sparro

They say it's insane
When you think
Somebody's gonna
Change when they won't
I'm getting tired of this recital
Is it really worth fighting for?
Young lovers seem care free
But these bags have gotten heavy again
I think it's time to break the pattern
Blame it on return of Saturn
A lonely road to nowhere that's all we are
I wish I never met you
You've done me so wrong
I wish I could forget you
It's been way too long
It's been sixteen hours
And three long years
Been tryin' a wipe these memories
And dry these tears
I wish I never met you
That's how much I regret you
Contempt is in silence
You offer no violence to me
You had me fiending
Like a crack head
I'll squeeze you out
Just like a black head
Nobody's gonna save you
And I know better than
To blame you alone
I lay there and took the lashes
But now I'll leave you with ashes
A lonely road to nowhere that's all we are
I wish I never met you
You've done me so wrong
I wish I could forget you
It's been way too long
It's been sixteen hours
And three long years

Been tryin'a wipe these memories
And dry these tears
I wish I never met you
That's how much I regret you
And now the flames just a flicker
Down to the wick
Now tell me whose gonna kill it
It burns until you snub it out
I wanna rub you out
But love's gonna trick ya
Fuck with your ticker
Take you down like a brick that's tied to ya
Pulling you down
Watch me drown
And dry these tears
I wish I never met you
That's how much I regret you
And dry these tears
I wish I never met you
That's how much I regret you
I wish I never met you
That's how much I regret you
