The Slow Show

I'm out, you're in.
I'm too tired of him to ring.
Don't fight, can't win.
Don't tell me you love me, its thin.

So close your eyes,
cause tonight, we're falling behind.

cause tonight, we're falling behind (x2)

If this is England that I see,
then all your values are foreign to me.
And your blue blue blue dress on the table reminds me dear,
there's no hope in leaving here.

'Cause tonight we're blind,
tonight we're falling behind.

'cause tonight, we're falling behind,
tonight,

don't fall tonight,
don't say we're on your side,
tonight.

cause tonight, we're falling behind (x2)
