My Own Life

Sonic Syndicate

My father said to load that gun
And keep the devil from the door
Don't be tempted by the words he saysI found a way to break the cycle
Initiated something vital
But to the ocean, it was only rainSo rain on me
(Rain on me)
So rain on me
(Rain on me)Bombs are going off in my mind
To ban the places I can hide
Quicker now, I better think twice
Start a new lifeFate is kicking down the door
But I don't live there anymore
Destiny, it needs your advice
I'm starting a new lifeWhat you gonna do when you've taken my breath away
Maybe die young isn't all it's meant to be
Until then I could just rewindMy life back to the beginning
Pause, press forward, that's too easy
Push stop the moment I can see the smokeThen rain on me
(Rain on me)
Then rain on me
(Rain on me)Bombs are going off in my mind
To ban the places I can hide
Quicker now, I better think twice
Start a new lifeFate is kicking down the door
But I don't live there anymore
Destiny, it needs your advice
I'm starting a new lifeMy own life
It's my own lifeBombs are going off in my mind
Take a deep look in my eyes
What you see, do I seem fine?
I'll start anewFate is knocking at the door
But I don't live there anymore
Destiny, it needs some advice
What shall I do?I'm starting a new lifeBombs are going off in my mind
To ban the places I can hide
Quickly now, I better think twice
Start a new lifeFate is kicking down the door
But I don't live there anymore
Destiny, it took your advice

I've started the new lifeIt's my own life, it's my own life
I've started the new life
It's my own life, it's my own life
I've started the new life
