Broken World

Sinner

Alone in the dark
There's anger in my hurted heart
No one will ever hear me scream
I'm living in broken dreamsMy life is turning into ruins
My only friend a moving shadow
I will be called, the king of fools
Silent screamsCaught in the moment, this can't be true
Disaster strikes, it came out of the blue
Running the edge 'til the point of no return
Here and forever, my broken world
In my broken worldIt's not the game of good and bad
A situation that drives me mad
I'm on the road that goes down the drain
In a rage of jealousy and painMy life is turning into ruins
My only friend a moving shadow
I will be called, the king of fools
Silent screamsCaught in the moment, this can't be true
Disaster strikes, it came out of the blue
Running the edge 'til the point of no return
Here and forever, my broken world
In my broken worldCaught in the moment, this can't be true
Disaster strikes, it came out of the blue
Running the edge 'til the point of no return
Here and forever, my broken world
In my broken world
