

Wreckin' Ball

Owen Campbell

Never really had the patience,
No one never had the time,
I never gave the service at your love in need,
 Won't you turn around,
 I'm a rolling stone,
Back down the dirty road I'ma rollin' on home,
 I guess I am
I know I amAnd I believe you honey,
 And I believe the sound,
 Why run away from me?
 Won't you run away from me?
You know I cant see beyond this,
 You know I never had the mind,
You know I've been checking out baby,
 All the time,
 The heaven sent you,
 But the devil i know,
I don't really mind if you tell me I'm gone,
 I know I am,
 I'm a wrecking ball
 And I believe you honey,
 And I believe the sound,
 Why run away from me?
Why run away from me?Back down the dirty road I'ma rollin' on home
 Back down the dirty road I'ma rollin' home
