Locked Away

Keith Richards

She swears, that I'm the only one
What about yesterday, yeah
Oh! I'd like to believe
Somehow I still suspectLocked away
She ought to be locked away
She ought to be locked awayMy mind is racing
Footsteps lead me to jealousy
I'm loosing my grip
I can't trust the way I feelLocked away
I ought to be locked away
I ought to be locked awayMy friends say that you're friends say, Ooh
That I ain't worth your time
I know what you must hear
Don't let it interfereLocked away
They ought to be locked away
They ought to be locked away
Locked awayWe can't do anything
Any trick in the book
We can't go anywhere
All long as we careWe ought to be locked away
We ought to be locked away
Locked away...
