Anorexia Nervosa

Messiah

Time of puberty
Age of quandary
Sorrow and worriesDisagreement
Predicament
I enigmatizeWeakness overcomes my body, my brain's so empty
I lose my appetite, day in day out
My body's deeply marked, I'm undernourishedMental changes, my mind is splitting
Inferiority complexes, time to confess
Pride and power, is giving me the hunger
Depr4ession and apathy, is changing my spiritTime to go hungry
It gives me great joy
Pleasure and satisfactionTo fight against
My hunger pangs
Gives me prideFeeling of sheer terror
To see me in the mirror
I could be so fatEvery pound I lose
Helps me on the course
To my sheer perfectionI don't realize how bad my body's feeling
My eyes see only my perfect slim body
But really I'm a half-starved skeleton
