

Sun Rose

Lisa Ekdahl

The sun rose and I awakened
Covered up in flames, I was lost
Like anyone knows, how I was skaken
Fallin' down in painI was almost blind
My hands entwined
But suddenly the
Sun rose right before my eyesI can't believe that I
Could feel the way I do
I can't believe it's true
It's you and only youThe sun rose In such a hazy sky this morning
I thought my soul would fly away
When it was just barely
High and dawningI thought I almost died
My hands were tied
But suddenly the
Sun rose right before my eyesI can't believe that I
Could feel the way I do
I can't believe it's true
It's you and only you
