

Heart Of Hearts

Leslie Phillips

Tears in the city
Nobody's really surprised, you know
My heart's taken a beating
Existence is bleeding me dry, you know
Way down, in my heart of hearts
Way down, in my soul of souls
Way down, I know that I am a fortunate girl
To have known divine love
The world is in shambles, I'm just a young girl
But it's getting a little bit old to me
I'm already aching, the years have been taking
A little bit of a toll on me
Way down, in my heart of hearts
Way down, in my soul of souls
Way down, I know that I am a fortunate girl
To have known divine love
Two in the morning, the siren is warning
That everything is not quite all right
The city is sleeping
And I'm down on my knees in the night, tonight
Way down, in my heart of hearts
Way down, in my soul of souls
Way down, I know that I am a fortunate girl
To have known divine love
To have known divine love
To have known divine love

Songwriters

Mark Heard
Published by

WORD MUSIC, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>