Trent Willmon

A lot has changed since I've been gone
But not my love for you
And I promised you nothing would keep me away
So I came back as fast as I could
And I still bump around this old house sometimes
But I barely make a sound
I sure have traveled a long, long way
Just to be hanging around
Sweet Virginia, I still lay beside you
And when you're dreaming that's really me
And if you feel something there in the darkness
Don't be afraid of what you can't see
Just know that I always will be here
I didn't mean to give you a cold chill today
When you were holding that picture of me
But I saw your tears so I reached for your hand
Forgetting how cold mine can be
And I made that breeze in the garden yesterday
Just to see you stop and smile
I know how you love the wind on your face
And besides I still need to touch you every once in a while
Sweet Virginia, I still lay beside you
And when you're dreaming that's really me
And if you feel something there in the darkness
Don't be afraid of what you can't see
Just know that I always will be here
Sweet Virginia, I still lay beside you
And when you're dreaming that's really me
Just know that I always will be here
