Deception

Military Arcade

We're all born with the same voice,
So many will never speak out.
That's you
A fire burns within me,
It should ignite us all,
It don't.Now I'll say it again,
I won't be forgetting,
But I forgive you, what have I become?Behind our big world leaders, lies the puppeteers.
That's them,
I forgive and we forget,
We all cast a vote,
They lied.Yeah, Yeah.
