Anybody But You

The Cruel Sea

Soul, everybody thinks they own mine
Yeah, seems like they think its a goldmine
But I dont wanna make a head line
I just thought this was supposed to be my timeI dont care what they do
Im never gonna give myself up
To anybody but youMy hands are tied to a devils tail
Hell give me what I want to the last detail
But Im sure I wanna make that sale
Stand in line and sell your sorry tailI dont care what they do
Im never gonna give myself up
To anybody but youIll never give myself up
To anybody but you
Ill never give myself up
To anybody but youSoul, somebody thinks they own mine
Yeah, seems like they tryin' to make a deadline
Please can you tell me what is my crime?
I spend my time tryin' to make these words rhymeI dont care what they do
Im never gonna give myself up
To anybody but youIll never give myself up
To anybody but you
Ill never give myself up
To anybody but you
Ill never give myself up
To anybody but you
