

Who Are You?

Loose Ends

I guess I should have noticed that you were all alone
I just saw you saying I want to take you home
Your beauty was deceiving and I was in the Twilights Zone Well, you didnt like my parties and then there was my friends
At first I tried to please you but then there was no end
If it's good enough for me, they're good enough for you too Who are you? Who are you?
Who are you? Are you You get so intoxicated that you find it hard to see
And then you tell me stories, are they purely fantasy?
What I dont understand just why you play these games with me? If you dont get tobacco you think the world has stopped
Youre pacing up and down like an Alfred Hitchcock plot
Ive come to the conclusion that you could not be worse for me
For you, yes me Who are you? Who are you?
Who are you? Are you Tell me who?
Tell me who?
Just tell me who are you? Who are you? Who are you?
Who are you? Are you Who are you? Who are you?
Who are you? Are you Who are you? Who are you?
Who are you?
