

Forget My Name (Acoustic Version)

One Night Only

So you wanna be famous
I'll tell you something, you've got to get away
I need some time in the sunshine somewhere
You need the sun and the sea, and your golden hair
You can dance, you can dance all night, yeah
But I'll be leaving as soon as the sun comes up
Are you gonna come with me someday?
I'm going, I'm going
You know we're going to burn out this way
But we'll be lighting the sky
Tell me you wanna be famous someday
I see the look in your eye
You know we're going to burn out this way
But we'll be lighting the sky
On and on we keep on dreaming
In the end you won't forget my name
You won't forget my name
Caught up in all of the action
We're in the middle of streets, all painted gold
Have you seen the reaction lately
Of all the people we left behind back home?
You can dance, you can dance all night, yeah
But I'll be leaving as soon as the sun comes up
Are you gonna come with me someday?
I'm going, I'm going
You know we're going to burn out this way
But we'll be lighting the sky
Tell me you wanna be famous someday
I see the look in your eye
You know we're going to burn out this way
But we'll be lighting the sky
On and on we keep on dreaming
In the end you won't forget my name
You know we're going to burn out this way
But we'll be lighting the sky
Tell me you wanna be famous someday
I see the look in your eye
You know we're going to burn out this way
But we'll be lighting the sky
On and on we're always dreaming
But in the end you won't forget my name
We're always dreaming
But in the end you won't forget my name
You won't forget my name
You won't forget my name
You won't forget my name
You won't forget my name
