Not Now

Clinton Shorter

Woke up in a big white bed in the sun, in the sun
Looking down on Jesus posing with a friend or anyone
So we went for some breakfast, coffee and tea
That's when I realized you're the sugar I need
Not now, not now baby, don't take this moment from me
Not now, not now baby, wait till tomorrow, I'll be leaving
Not now, you can't save it, let today be
'Cause if we come back it's gonna be gone
Took a drive, headed for the sea in the middle of January
Talked about the future and ate ice cream, just happy to be
And how I laughed when some old man
Said that you looked like Duran Duran
Not now, not now baby, don't take this moment from me
Not now, not now baby, wait till tomorrow, I'll be leaving
Not now, not now baby, don't take this moment from me
Not now, not now baby, wait till tomorrow, I'll be leaving
Not now, you know that you can't save it now
This time tomorrow, I'll be gone
Not now, not now baby, don't take this moment from me
Not now, not now baby, wait till tomorrow, I'll be leaving
Not now, you can't save it, let today be
'Cause if we come back it's gonna be gone
Not now, not now baby, don't take this moment from me
Not now, not now baby, wait till tomorrow, I'll be leaving
Not now, you can't save it, let today be
'Cause if we come back it's gonna be gone
You know that you can't save it now
This time tomorrow, I'll be gone
