Until the Next Time

Dramarama

Bang and here we go
Watch the road and don't drive so slow
Takes so long and it's so hard
There's a million bums in my backyardI get excited, I get so impatient
Takes so long to get back home
To do it up, to do or dieAnd we've only just begun
And I feel like having fun
But I swear, I'll be all right
Until the next timeSo that's how it starts
And I left out the best parts
I sweat and talk too much
Don't shut up, don't shut downTell me a story, man, I'll tell you twenty Costs so much and goes so fast
Screws you up and drags you downAnd we've only just begun
And I feel like having fun
And I swear, I'll be all right
Until the next oneAnd I start off feeling swell
Pretty soon I'm done too well
But I swear, I'll be all right
Until the next timeCosts too much and I talk too much
Takes so long and it goes so fast
I can't think too straightAnd we've only just begun
And I feel like having fun
And I swear, I'll be all right
Until the next oneAnd I start off doing fine
Pretty soon I'm keeping time
But I swear, I'll be all right
Until the next timeUntil the next time
Until the next time
Until the next time
Until the next timeUntil the next time
Until the next time
Until the next time
Until the next time
