

The Price You Pay

Stress

You make up your mind, you choose the chance you take
You ride to where the highway ends and the desert breaks
 Out on to an open road you ride until the day
 You learn to sleep at night with the price you pay
Now with their hands held high, they reached out for the open skies
And in one last breath they built the roads they'd ride to their death
 Driving on through the night, unable to break away
 From the restless pull of the price you pay
 Oh, the price you pay, oh, the price you pay
 Now you can't walk away from the price you pay
 Now they'd come so far and they'd waited so long
Just to end up caught in a dream where everything goes wrong
 Where the dark of night holds back the light of the day
 And you've gotta stand and fight for the price you pay

 Oh, the price you pay, oh, the price you pay
 Now you can't walk away from the price you pay
 Little girl down on the strand
 With that pretty little baby in your hands
 Do you remember the story of the promised land
 How he crossed the desert sands
 And could not enter the chosen land
 On the banks of the river he stayed
 To face the price you pay
So let the game start, you better run you little wild heart
 You can run through all the nights and all the days
But just across the county line, a stranger passing through put up a sign
That counts the men fallen away to the price you pay, and girl before the end of the day,
 I'm gonna tear it down and throw it away
