In-dependence Day

Less Than Jake

Rescue me from boring times
It's a story I know, line by line
Different deep on the inside
Isn't different if you have to try?
Have to try?I'm borderline, day after day
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
Time passes by like a slow parade
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
(Knocked to my knees again)The measurements of my success
Are always measured in not makin' sense
My motivation's taking bets
It's apologies or arguments
With a head full of cans and cant's
(Head full of cans and cant's)I try and try and try to remember
Why I think it's now or it's never?I'm borderline day after day
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
Time passes by like a slow parade
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
(Knocked on my knees again)
(Knocked on my knees again)I try and try and try to remember
Why I think it's now or it's never?I'm borderline day after day
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
Time passes by like a slow parade
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet againI'm borderline day after day
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
Time passes by like a slow parade
Waitin' to get knocked off my feet again
(Knocked on my knees again)
Knocked on my knees again
