The Last Time I Saw Richard

Joni Mitchell

The last time I saw Richard was Detroit in '68,
And he told me all romantics meet the same fate someday
Cynical and drunk and boring someone in some dark cafe
You laugh, he said you think you're immune, go look at your eyes
They're full of moon

You like roses and kisses and pretty men to tell you All those pretty lies, pretty lies

When you gonna realize they're only pretty lies
Only pretty lies, just pretty liesHe put a quarter in the Wurlitzer, and he pushed
Three buttons and the thing began to whirr

And a bar maid came by in fishnet stockings and a bow tie

And she said drink up now it's gettin' on time to close

Richard, you haven't really changed, I said

It's just that now you're romanticizing some pain that's in your head

You got tombs in your eyes, but the songs

You punched are dreaming

Listen, they sing of love so sweet, love so sweet When you gonna get yourself back on your feet?

Oh and love can be so sweet, love so sweetRichard got married to a figure skater

And he bought her a dishwasher and a Coffee percolator

And he drinks at home now most nights with the TV on

And all the house lights left up bright I'm gonna blow this damn candle out

I don't want Nobody comin' over to my table

I got nothing to talk to anybody about

All good dreamers pass this way some day

Hidin' behind bottles in dark cafes

Dark cafes

Only a dark cocoon before I get my gorgeous wings

And fly away

Only a phase, these dark cafe days
