

Roll Up

Fitz & The Tantrums

Can I get a witness in the darkness?
Cause there ain't no love at all to be found
Feeling like a freight train, trying to break chains
Everybody needs somebody, no doubt

Sugar just step into your sneakers
And step behind the speakers
Your heart will keep me beating
And make me a believer
Don't you want me?
Don't you want me?
I need some mercy in my soul right now
Give me what you got, oh oh oh
Give me what you got, oh oh oh

(1, 2, 3, 4)

I said, roll up, roll up, roll up, yeah come get your love
I don't care, I don't care why you're dancing tonight
Just as long as you're there in the break of the light
I said, roll up, roll up, roll up, yeah come get your love
I don't care, I don't care, if I'm losing my way
I'll be waiting for you as the night fades away
So roll up
Roll up
Roll up
Roll up

Can I get an amen when the night ends?
There's no winner when you're walking alone
Sliding down the last street as the day creeps
What you doin' when nobody at home?

Sugar just step into your sneakers
And step behind the speakers
Your heart will keep me beating
And make me a believer
Don't you want me?
Don't you want me?
I need some mercy in my soul, come on
Give me what you got, oh oh oh

Give me what you got, oh oh oh

(1, 2, 3, 4)

I said, roll up, roll up, roll up, yeah come get your love (yeah come get your love)

I don't care, I don't care why you're dancing tonight

Just as long as you're there in the break of the light

I said, roll up, roll up, roll up, yeah come get your love (yeah come get your love)

I don't care, I don't care, if I'm losing my way

I'll be waiting for you as the night fades away

So roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Shake and strut

Touch and pump

Hand in hand

For one last touch

Give me what you got, oh oh oh

I said, roll up, roll up, roll up, yeah come get your love (yeah come get your love)

I don't care, I don't care where you're dancing tonight

Just as long as you're there in the break of the light

I said, roll up, roll up, roll up, yeah come get your love (yeah come get your love)

I don't care, I don't care, if I'm losing my way

I'll be waiting for you as the night fades away

So roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up

Roll up
