

Caravan

Blur

Caravan's lost in the sun and the dust
No one loves you when you are lost
Here I'm a clown pulling my world down
I believed I was strong, you are the one
And when it comes, you'll feel the weight of it
The weight of it
The day will come and you'll get away from it
Away from it
Sometimes everything is easy
Sometimes everything is easy
La la la
La la la
La la la
I try to quit
But my heart won't buy it
I got family
The caravan comes back for me
And when it comes you'll feel the weight of it
The weight of it
And the day will come and you'll get away from it
Away from it
Sometimes everything is easy
Sometimes everything is easy
La la la
La la la
La la la
...
