Silly Really

Per Gessle

You'd better get up
And leave the neighbour singin'
You'd better get up
Before you break some major law
You're takin' a walk
An' hear distant screamin'
Or is it just the tyres of a car?
You know you've been thru this before
She knocked on your door
She knocked on the door

Come to think about it
It's silly really
When you're thinkin' about it
Even less you seem to know
Come to think about it
It's silly really
When you fumble about it
Even less you seem to know
It's so silly silly silly
So silly silly silly

You'd better get up
And get somethin' goin'
You'd better get up
Because your mind might get misled
It's all a mistake
Unless I'm much mistaken
You got to get up
And get that girl out of your head
She's movin' right into your bed
Right into your bed
Right into your bed

Come to think about it
It's silly really
When you're thinkin' about it
Even less you seem to know
Come to think about it

It's silly really
When you fumble about it
Even less you seem to know
It's so silly silly silly
So silly silly silly

Thinkin' about it
Fumble about it
It's so silly

Come to think about it
It's silly really
It's silly really
