

The Hammer and the Nail

Ed Harcourt

I've been disguised by sunken eye
I sleep in cars and shout at stars
The killer said I'm not quite dead
[Unverified] replied then I must hide Please don't say I'm stuck in wood
That I could sink like metal should
And I see the ocean envelope me
Like I was meant to be a baby And I see the ocean envelope me
Like I was meant to be a baby An old scrap heap, I heard him creep
He sawed the rust and struck at dusk
All my hope he crushed and choked
So my life won't wait inside this crate And please don't say I'm stuck in wood
That I could sink like metal should
And I see the ocean envelope me
Like I was meant to be a baby And I see the ocean envelope me
Like I was meant to be a baby, oh

Songwriters

HARCOURT, ED Published by

Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>