

Same Old Blues (feat. Doug Riley & Joe Sealy)

Michael Kaeshammer

Mornin rain keeps on fallin
Like the tears that fall from my eyes
Oh, as I sit, as I sit in my room staring out at the gloom
Its the rain, its the same old blues I cant help, I cant help but thinking
When the sun used to shine, shine in my back door
Yes now, the sun has turned to rain
And all my laughter has turned to pain
Its the pain of the same old blues Sunshine, sunshine is all you see now
But it all looks like, it all looks like clouds to me
But as I sit, as I sit in my room
Just staring out the window looking at the gloom
Oh, its the rain and its the same, same old blues
Its the rain and its the same old blues
Yes, yes, its the rain and its the same, the same old blues, yeah
