

The Big Guns Of Highsmith

Lightspeed Champion

Joke's on you, I've made it out the city
And book club never happened as we planned
She said something better happen quickly
Religious crypts and manuscripts are hands Chelsea teas and Socrates still haunt me
A life I've strived and chased and haven't lost
I gave it up so I should stop complainin'
A better life in the palm of my hand Have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
Have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
Alone is all I've got Even if my calculation's wrong
I've pin-pointed the elements of this song
Break a gal and just think nothing of it
My wedding clothes are dirty from now on Have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
Have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin') I have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
I have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin') Even in the summer, beneath the [Incomprehensible] sun
I'm dreamin' of the girl, I'm dreamin' of the girl
Even in the winter, everything's begun
I'm dreamin' of the girl, I'm dreamin' of the girl Has to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
Has to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin') I have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
I have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
(Oh, just stop complainin', oh, just stop complainin')
I have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
I have to be the one who's always feelin' sad
