Out There

Patty Smyth

Lizzy got married on Christmas Day
On the Coney Island Coast, I remember the way
She stood in the cold with the sun in her hair
Me and my brother were standing by
I remember my mother started to cry
Liz just looked at the sea, a million miles awayI said, "Now Lizzy can you tell me what you see?
And tell me why you keep a looking out there
Why you keep searching out there?
When everything youll ever want or need
Is right here with meYeah, and I took a ride with whoever would ask
I looked for the future, was done with the past and the present
Hey, that was just something to get through
And the nights went by and the years went too
My life was a mirror, the reflection was you
And at the end of the day my voice was so far awayOoh, but maybe you could tell me who I am
And tell me why I keep a looking out there
Why I keep searching out there
For something you cant taste or touch or see
No, no, no, 'cause its right here in meAnd I know its all an illusion
You see what you wanna see
And I know, I know, aint nothing gonna rescue me now
I can take all this confusion
I just wanna be here nowEverything youll ever want or need
I know, I know, I know, its right here
I keep a looking out there
I keep searching out there
For something you cant taste or touch or see
No, no, no, 'cause its right hereI said
"Na na na
Na na na
Na na na"
