

Paranoid and Aroused

Korn

Help me, I am breaking
And my heart is barely beating
And the demons they are creeping aroundTake me, I am sinking
And my clothes are barely breathing
As the angels put me into the groundAnd everybody's peeking
No one makes a sound
The shadows are deceiving
Paranoid and arousedSlam me, I am shaking
And my guts are really aching
And the demons, they're laughing out loudSpare me, I am fading
And my will is dissipating
As the angels put me into the groundAnd everybody's peeking
No one makes a sound
The shadows are deceiving
Paranoid and arousedMy mind is debating
These creatures I'm making
This medicines sedating
The power embracing
The fall I'm facing
My feelings I'm hating
Reality is failing
This is degrading...2.45And everybody's peeking
No one makes a sound
The shadows are deceiving
Paranoid and arousedIm facing my felling
I'm hatting reality is failing
This is degrading
