Half A Man

Tynisha Keli

I'm a first round knock out
Got a triple header, nothin better
Anything spectacular, that's me
I had you on the first thing
Smokin to my paradise
Only you would be the one to not know what it is
Tell me? Tell Me?
Who made you better?
Who kept it ready when you need it good and ready?
Good comeback got you sweating
Just one more question
Oh why you're sweatin
Is it cause it's too much pressure
Maybe now you learned your lesson
I'm going back to my first love
Cause that's the lover, that loves me the best (the best)
Since you're not half the man I am
I guess I'll be loving myself
I'm going back to my first love
The lover, that loves me the best
I'm going back to my first love
Guess I'll be loving myself
Call me strange, whatever
I know I can love me better
Than the little boy
That's tryin to be a man
Got caught up in your hype
Now you missed the spot light
You thought you was a star
Now I'm snatchin your lime light
Tell me? Tell Me?
Who made you better?
Who kept it ready when you need it good and ready?

Good comeback kept you sweating
Just one more question
Did you think you wouldn't learn your lesson
Tryin to flex on me
I'm going back to my first love

Cause that's the lover, that loves me the best (the best)
Since you're not half the man I am
I guess I'll be loving myself
I'm going back to my first love
The lover, that loves me the best
I'm going back to my first love
Guess I'll be loving myself
Used to be closer, now we be on different continents
I done packed me some confidence
Got you saying that I'm a trip
Had to flip the script on you
I played my roll and like I'm proud of it
Made each other these promises
Damn at least we could honor em
Presidential suited room, baby girl I'm dialin in
And I know you're phone on silent mode
But pick it up I'm calling it
And I notice that your a star and all
But girl I keep you shining
And if I must I will remind you that
And I would definitely spartan it.
I'm going back to my first love
Cause that's the lover, that loves me the best (the best)
Since you're not half the man I am
I guess I'll be loving myself
I'm going back to my first love
The lover, that loves me the best
I'm going back to my first love
Guess I'll be loving myself
