

In My Eyes

Rufio

You're graceful, your grace falls
Down around me in my eyes
You're lovely, your love leaves
So easily in my eyes Another day left waiting
Alone in my room with no calls from you
So I call you up, but you let me down
Falling down around everyone except yourself
I thought that this would never end
Things were so clear but they fell through
High hopes of problems never failed
Thinking of the best
You're graceful, your grace falls
Down around me in my eyes
You're lovely, your love leaves
So easily in my eyes Another day left crying
With you in my room, with nothing left to do
You say that it's not right
You said it's over now
Stand still annoyed with no one around
I thought that this would never end
Things were so clear but they fell through
High hopes of problems never failed
Thinking of the best You're graceful, your grace falls
Down around me in my eyes
You're lovely, your love leaves
So easily in my eyes
