

A Taste Of Things To Come

Go West

I need a taste
Of what you keep hidden
Got to give it up
For the working man
The sweetest fruit
Is the fruit forbidden
Something in your smile
Says you understand
You can pump me up
You can let me down
You can sidestep
But you know what i need
I need a taste of things to come
I need a taste of things to come
(make me happy)
I need a taste on the tip of my tongue
I need a taste of things to come I need a taste
Of what i've been missing
A little bit of love
Just to get me through
I'm on my knees
But you keep me wishing
There's a part of me
That needs a part of you
You can pump me up
You can let me down
You can sidestep
But you know what i need.
I need a taste of things to come
I need a taste of things to come
(make me happy)
I need a taste on the tip of my tongue
I need a taste of things to come You've been holding out
I've been holding on
'cause i've got you in my sights
I don't want to let go
But i can't wait another day
It's got to be tonight girl You know what i need
I need a taste of things to come
