Anything for You

Night Ranger

Promises, promises step inside my head
This is the way things are done around here
Wake up, wake up, get up out of bed
I hear it's been a little crowded in thereDo you give a damn
I don't think you care
All I hear you saying isI would do anything for you
I will make sure the sky is blue
I would do anything for youPraying for a weakness
Make opportunities count
And you in the business
Of shooting off your mouthLet's have a drink to your health
Have a toast to happiness
How 'bout dinner on the coast
I think I should laugh at thisDo you give a damn
I don't think I care
And all these worthy promisesI would do anything for you
I will make sure the sun shines through
I would do anything it's trueTime after time, life can be unusual
Driven by fears, I have to seem invincible
To everyday illusions of our mindsI would do anything for you
I will make sure the sky is blue
I would do anything for you
I would do anything for you
