

Rollin' Back

My Morning Jacket

Just in the nick of time you got me...
While I was sittin here
Time I don't think I waste it,
It just seems to disappear
Sippin' the wine you got me,
While eyes were rollin' back
Long hours and hard hard things
Just bring heart attacks
Oh oh oh you had me,
Wrapped up in your mystery...
When the light vanished from on high
Oh, I'll never say I knew you,
But my heart can't wait
To meet you on the other side

When I think about the story
One thing seems pretty clear
The warm things you left behind
They still want you here
But only in time you find...
That all things come back around
And just like the frown,
We'll turn them upside down
Oh oh oh you had me
Wrapped up in your mystery...
When the light vanished from on high
Oh, I'll never say I knew you
But my heart can't wait
To meet you on the other side.
