

Tear It Down

Hatebreed

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Tear it down now How much more can you possibly take?
How many battles can you lose in one day?
Who is the source of all your pain
And how do you ever plan to be unrestrained? How much longer? How much more?
Until you gain some self respect
For once, just stand the fuck up and then fight
Confront and shatter everything that stands in your way Every burden, every source of strife
Tear it down
Every cage, every fucking vice
Tear it down Distorted notions of who you are
Tear it down
Imposed values and beliefs
Tear them down Down
Down
Tear it down now
