

Heart Attack (Eastlight X KRE!N Remix)

AOA

A-ye (Brave sound)
And it goes a little something like this
I've completely fallen for you
Your soft voice
I've fallen for it
I'm trembling
(AOA Let's Go!)

I think I'm crazy, why am I like this
My heart is like a 18 year old girl's, it keeps pounding
I can't hide it, I'm like this every day
When our eyes meet, my ears turn red

You don't understand? It's because you didn't see him
I totally understand how people fall in love at first sight
Now I know, the first time I saw you
I've completely fallen for you
Your broad shoulders, your sharp eyes
Your soft voice
I've fallen for them
Just looking at your thin and long fingers makes me tremble
Oh my, I keep getting a heart attack
The more I see you
My heart keeps pounding, I don't know
It's like a heart attack, what do I do?
I keep wanting to be in your arms, baby
When our eyes meet, my heart pounds
I try to get even the tiniest bit of your attention
"What about him do you like so much?"
My friends ask and I answer, "Don't talk if you don't know"
You don't understand? It's because you didn't see him
I totally understand how people fall in love at first sight
Now I know, the first time I saw you
I've completely fallen for you
Your broad shoulders, your sharp eyes
Your soft voice
I've fallen for them
Just looking at your thin and long fingers makes me tremble
Oh my, I keep getting a heart attack
The more I see you

My heart keeps pounding, I don't know
It's like a heart attack, what do I do?
I keep wanting to be in your arms, baby
Oh my prince, where are you looking?
I'm right here
You're so handsome, I just need you
I can't live without you
I've completely fallen for you
Your soft voice
I've fallen for it
I'm trembling
Oh my, I keep getting a heart attack
Everybody say What! AOA
Pounding
And it goes a little something like this
Heart attack
One more time say What! AOA
I wanna be in your arms baby
