

Paper in Your Pocket

The Elwins

Look inside your coat
I put a paper in your pocket holding a note
That says a few nice things
And needs some eyes to see the wonders written inside
You, you've got a charm
That spins my head around my dampened underarms
Will you take a trip with me
Down a sunny stream a-floating
on a gooseneck boat
And if you feel a rumbling in your stomach, dear
Don't be scared to make a mess
Or ruin your new dress with me
Oh there she goes (there she goes)
She's walking past me here I wonder if she knows (where does she go?)
That I do share the air
That blows the bells she sings along without a care
I hope her hands do find
(I hope her hands do find)
The folded feelings that I know I left behind (that I left behind) Will you take a trip with me
Down a sunny stream a-floating
on a gooseneck boat
And if you feel a rumbling in your stomach, dear
Don't be scared to make a mess
Or ruin your new dress
Waiting for an apple to fall into my hands
Waiting seems to be the master plan
Smiling til it gets me stiff, oh, oh no
Will you take a trip with me
Down a sunny stream a-floating
on a gooseneck boat
And if you feel a rumbling in your stomach, dear
Don't be scared to make a mess
Or ruin your new dress with me
Don't be scared to make a mess
Or ruin your new dress with me
Look inside your coat
I put a paper in your pocket holding a note
