

Zero Weed Tolerance

Cannabis Corpse

He won't admit he has a problem
Every time he starts to smoke
He loses control and starts killing
No one is safe from his onslaught
Sensations dulled, he can't feel anything
So stoned and paranoid, violently paranoid Half baked, he's headed towards a shopping mall
For a killing spree Hacking, stabbing he is laughing at
All the splattered blood
Zero Weed Tolerance
All this carnage only after smoking one hit
Zero Weed Tolerance
A psychotic lightweight
The morbid costs of hydroponic weeds affect on a fragile mind
A savage monster was created and unleashed on all of mankind
People screaming in fear as they flee
Horrid sight of grisly death
Caused by a THC crazed zombie
Abhorrent THC nightmare, inhuman Schizophrenic and ripped out of his fucking mind
Police call for backup
They need help
They tried tear gas but it had no effect
It was astounding
They used a grenade to immolate
But panic set in when he charged at them
While he was still engulfed in flame
Zero Weed Tolerance
All this carnage after only after smoking one hit
Zero Weed Tolerance
He should've stayed home and had a beer
