

Casanova

Roxy Music

You, the hero, so many times
You've loved and didn't linger
Now my finger points at you
Another loserYou, an island on your own
Complete in every detail
Monumental, a precious jewel
Or just a foolInnovator, it's in your mind
And blood, I watch it simmer
I see you're courting more despair
No hope, not a glimmerNow you're nothing but second hand
In glove with second rate now
Now you're flirting with heroin
Or is it cocaine?
