Back In Town

Boiled In Lead

Mister Decruz won't you shake my hand?
Do I look too much better than what you had planned?
I been back since late last fall.
Tell me who you gonna call?
Mister Decruz, you're lookin' well [error on CD lyrics]
Mind if I sit here, just for a spell?
Sorry I couldn't be gone for good
Like you thought I would.
You knew the drunk was loaded
When you put him on the ship.
You didn't think he'd give
Your hired hand the slip.
Keep your mind on your business, don't look around.
Aren't you glad that I'm back in town?
Mister Decruz, how do you feel?
Why don't you just sit down so we can deal?
I gave you every chance to choose
Mister Decruz.
