I Believe

Tigertailz

I BelieveI sit here all alone
A heart that'z turned to stone
Can't wait to hear your voice againI feel yout every fear
Can't wait to hold you near
Can't wait to feel your touch againI can't wait a minute longer
To hear you say you're coming homeI believe
Somewhere a light is shining
I believe
Somewhere out there you wait for meI sit here all alone
But in my heart i know
One day i'll see your face again
My spirit will not break
However long it takez
Can't wait to feel your touch againI can't wait a minute longer
To hear you say you're coming homeI believe
Somewhere a light is shining
I believe
Somewhere out there you wait for meIn between us there'z a world of pain
I can't believe i'll never
See your face again
I know you're waiting babe
I know you're there
Won't you answer my prayer?
