Kiss That Girl Goodbye

Aaron Watson

[Verse 1]
Well, it's pretty much understood
Rainy days are just no good for leaving
No need mixing misery and gin
So it goes for icy days, heartache and slick highways
No time to wait, you're gonna break
If you bend and bend again[Pre-Chorus]
But a fresh new start will warm your heart
Like the sun breaking through a cloudy sky
[Chorus]
If ever was a good day
It's the day that boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Just like a red eye flight
Two tail lights in the night
You're gon' spread your wings and fly
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Just like a westbound train
You're drinking cheap champagne
Got no more tears to cry
And you're long gone like a whisper in the wind
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Bye bye, bye bye[Verse 2]
No need in naming names, players love playing games
And he played your heart like a little violin
It's brand new rhyme and riddle, it's your turn to play that fiddle
And that same old song and dance is coming to an end
[Pre-Chorus]
'Cause a fresh new start will warm your heart
Like the sun breaking through a cloudy sky[Chorus]
If ever was a good day
It's the day that boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Just like a red eye flight
Two tail lights in the night
You're gon' spread your wings and fly
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Just like a westbound train
You're drinking cheap champagne
Got no more tears to cry
And you're long gone like a whisper in the wind

That boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Bye bye, bye bye
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye[Bridge]
If he really wants a goodbye kiss
He must be out of his ever-loving mind
If he really wants a goodbye kiss
You tell him to go kiss it where the sun don't shine[Chorus]
If ever was a good day
It's the day that boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Just like a red eye flight
Two tail lights in the night
You're gon' spread your wings and fly
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye
Just like a westbound train
You're drinking cheap champagne
Got no more tears to cry
And you're long gone like a whisper in the wind
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye[Outro]
You're out like a light, like a red eye flight
Like two tail lights in the dusty midnight
He's out of mind, you're out of sight
That ship has sailed, that shit don't fly
You're gone like a train, like a westbound train
With a one way ticket, drinking cheap champagne
Flush him down the drain 'cause there's no more tears to cry
And you're long gone like a whisper in the wind
That boy can kiss that girl goodbye
