

Rainy Days

Mary J. Blige

Heh, yeah
Rule baby, heh
Mary J. Blige
Murda Inc.
SmileIt's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for meAll of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at meWe were always livin' so crazy and sexy and cool
And we began to love it
(Began to love it)
Watchin' all of the heartache and pain of the world
And thinkin' nothin' of it
(Thinkin' nothin' of it)And, baby, I got love for you
And I know that you got me, baby
But everytime the sun shines bright
It gets so cloudyIt's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for meAll of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at meNobody loves the rain, can't stand it
We know we've seen it before, baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls? YeahNobody loves the rain, can't stand it
We know we've seen it before, baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls? YeahYeah, baby
Sometimes the Rule don't mind the rain
It kinda feels like I'm drownin' in the Lord's pain
Until the sun comes out and shines againSmile and give me reason to keep believin'
That everything ain't misleadin'
And I, kiss the clouds on them rainy days
And, smile for you when ya skies are grayBabe, 'cuz I'm a teardrop away from cryin'
And a few shots away from dyin'
Dear Lord, would you shower my pain?

Let it rain, let it rain on me While I cherish the air I breathe
I'm an angel that can't soar, can't fly
And I mastered it, Lord knows why It's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me All of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me I feel like an angel with my broken wings
So I can soar again, Lord, let me in
Baby through all the passion, the pain and the hurt
I feel like I'm fallin', yeah Makin' clothes for all of those that spread love
And for those who can't take it, stand up
Baby, we gonna make it, in the words of Marvin Gaye
War is not the answer 'Cuz nobody loves the rain, can't stand it
We know we've seen it before, baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls? Yeah Nobody loves the rain, can't stand it
We know we've seen it before, baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell ya before
About chasin' those waterfalls? Yeah It's just those rainy days
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun come out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me All of those rainy days
Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me Smile, smile, smile, smile, smile
Smile, smile, smile, smile 'til the sun shines
Just smile for me, just smile for me, just smile at me
Know in your heart that we are free
Free to believe, whatever we feel
So feel somethin' real, baby, hey
