Bleeding

Lovex

Few drops left of my hope I bleed in the name of faith decisions I've made, decisions of fools why am I bleeding for youMissing the one who gave me nothing
The one who dreamed my dreams awayWhy am I bleeding in my, bleeding on my soul Why am I bleeding for youFlaming pride in your eyes out of the ashes I'll build mine reason and feelings will never meet in me why am I bleeding for youI couldn't live life like you could I'm still the one misunderstood
I couldn't be the dream, the lonely heart to seal your scheme
I couldn't live the life you love
