

Revolution 1993 (Demo Version)

Jamiroquai

Do it! It's time for a revolution! You've got to stand up (stand up), stay strong (stay strong) start movin' in the right direction
Don't wait (don't wait), too long (too long), for people promising divine intervention 19 nine three, now I'm taking matters into my own hands
So fast, I can't see A revolution is the only way that we can change change change yeah! Well it's hard times, white lines, kids of nine gettin' down with gun crime
War zones, no homes, ain't it time we gave the dog a bone
Say brothers (brothers!), sisters (sisters!), step up and put yourself in the picture
This time you know a revolution if the only way that we can change change change yeah!
I wanna fight the power
Come on and fight the power yeah! Now don't you wanna feel and fight it now?!
Come on! We can fight it now!
Question, answer (answer), shake your hand and smile for the camera
But it's no good you should spend time in your neighbourhood
Where black kids, white kids
Now you're working overtime to be a crack kid
No job, no cash, a revolution is the only way that we can change change change yeah!
I wanna fight the power Still we don't seem to understand we need a revolution Everybody wants a revolution Who is, this man, I'm having trouble finding out where I'm coming from Preconceptions, it's eternal human infection one chance,
Learn how you're gonna change the habit of a lifetime my soul, concerned,
That revolution is the only way that we can change change change
I wanna fight the power
Sunshine, new day, I only know how to get the right way
Faster, stronger, I help my brother and my soul lives longer
Blinded, I can't see
That revolution is the only way that we can change change change
I wanna fight the power
No doubt, in time, everything is sweet sunshine
But in the meantime, mankind, is having trouble where to draw the line
We still don't, respect, and yet I thought we had intellect Sometimes I think the music is the only hope we have for revolution Still we don't seem to understand we need a revolution
Everybody needs a revolution
