Girls Talk

Garbage

Stop those voices in your head
They eat away your will
You've everything you needHate the way they make you weak
They bring you to your knees
And steal your power awayGirls talk shit when you're backed up against it
Don't believe any word that they hear
And you can do what it is that you want
Without some little bitch in your earAnd girls talk shit, making no bones about it
When you're something that they don't understand
When they see that you got caught with your pants down
When they see you got caught with your pants downBuy into the things they say
You'll lose your common sense
You've everything you needLove to bring you to your knees
And watch you as you bleed
And give your power awayGirls talk shit when you're backed up against it
Don't believe any word that they hear
And you can do what it is that you want
Without some little bitch in your earAnd girls talk shit, making no bones about it
When you're something that they don't understand
And you can do what it is that you want
Without some little bitch in your earAnd girls talk shit, making no bones about it
When you're something that they don't understand
And you can do what it is that you want
Without some little bitch in your earGirls talk shit, when your karma is crashing
Girls talk shit, when it falls to the floor
Girls talk shit, when you're biting your nails down
To the quick cause you feel insecureGirls talks shit, making no bones about it
Girls talks shit, making no bones about it
You can do what it is that you want
Without some little bitch in your ear
In your ear
In your ear
